LOCAL NEWS.

W. O. Min is having his new brick house related version by a suicide-laid of old Vermillion hill.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

I will have a fine bay 2-year-old stallion colt at the stock sale on June 10th, which will be sold to the highest bidder.
JENNY PROFFER.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for neuralgia, corns, pains in the back and sides, etc., ever produced. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Notice the advertisement this week of the Helderberg farm for sale by I. W. Maple. It is the most valuable farm in the county and a capital investment for any wide awake business farmer.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at the old Grassy church, on Grassy, next Saturday at 2 o'clock; at Sol. Log's church here Saturday night, at 8 o'clock, and at Grassy church again at 11 a. m. Sunday.

Kelly B. Day, went on his way, on last Tuesday for a general holiday, to be spent with his Uncle John Day, up on the creek of Frogon, the place which he has chosen, together with his cousin, to sing fish by the dozen.

The attention of the road overseers on the road between this place and Maytown, is respectfully called to the condition of their respective districts, and an appreciative people hope soon to see the road in at least passable condition.

Hardin Smith, who is in jail under a writ for tripping, and L. Strickland, widow of Peter Strickland murdered by Floyd Williams, who is also in jail under indictment for conspiracy with Williams, were married in the county jail last Thursday.

Felix Cockrell, the negro fiend, was arrested in Breathitt county last week, and was sent to jail without credit for the examining court last Saturday. We mentioned the case in last week's Herald. This time it is, and the better part is the sweet bye-and-bye.

Prof. N. B. Hays, whose school has just held its commencement exercises, has been employed to conduct many of the teachers' institutes for the county, and a better choice could not have been made by the superintendents than so fortunate as to secure his services.

We mentioned last week that David Moore had made the coffin for Mrs. N. N. Day, but we should have stated that he assisted Gracie Strickland by this place to make it. Mr. Ward was employed to do the work, and employed Mr. Moore to assist him. We make this correction in justice to Mr. Ward, as his many friends doubtless thought it strange that another should be credited with his work.

The wife of Joseph Deane Nickell, of Caney, in Morgan county, died at the residence of her husband last Friday morning. She was a Christian lady, having been a member of the Christian church for a number of years. She was the mother of 21 children, 17 of whom survive her. Rev. J. T. Pieratt preached her funeral on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and the burial was attended by a large assemblage of her friends and relatives.

Two of our citizens, Judge G. B. Swango and Hon. W. O. Mingo, have played Floyd for Hays to teach the public school at this place last fall, stand responsible to that gentleman for a debt of $118.49, unpaid by the patrons of the school. The citizens should come forward promptly and help them, for we men pay the amount. It is certainly not just nor right for the parties reaping the benefits of the school to shrink their part of the expense.

Henry Godsey cut his foot very badly with an ax about 10 days ago, and has been partially confined to his home since, though, for the sake of his family, he did take part in the dramatic entertainment on Thursday night last, and "Pepper" delighted the audience with his comic antics. His dialect in that special role is first-class, and with a little school training he would be a national reputation, but Hazel Green would be likely to spare him, as all like him and hope soon to see "Richard himself again."

THE STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

How can we better celebrate the 4th of July, 1885, than by a grand demonstration of our enthusiastic devotion to the sacred cause of "Public Education"? The S. T. A. is the organized representative of this greatest of works, one which can never become a "Lost Cause" so long as the more than 120,000 intelligent schoolmen and women who are actively interested in the S. T. A. are faithful to their high trust! The next meeting of the S. T. A. is to be in Lexington, Ky., July 24th and 25th. More than 100 committees have promised delegations. Teachers, show your strength! No opposition can withstand the united efforts of the 120,000 who have resolved not to rest until Kentucky stands fully abreast the most advanced in this enlightened age. Every man and woman whose name appears in the "Proceedings" of the next meeting of the S. T. A. is to be held in memory by Kentuckians for many generations. Schoolmen and women resolve to make the self-sacrifice needed to enroll your names in this noble army warring against ignorance! He with us July 24-25. See! The raised counties have nobly responded to our call! The people of Lexington have tendered to our people reduced rates of travel. Every intelligent lover of Kentucky observes you do not love the children? Strengthen them for you represent to the call the times make upon you for devotion to "our cause." 5000 programmes—5000 copies of "The Teacher's Friend" get easily. Send for "Proceedings" of last meeting, to understand the trial of affairs. Christian teachers, pray that we may understand our duty and dare to do it.
ROBT. D. ALLIN,
President State Teachers' Association.
Falmale, Ky., May 10, 1885.

Campton High School—Closing Exercises.

Your correspondent, by special request, attended the closing exercises of the Campton high school last week, of which Prof. A. F. Byrd is principal. Owing to the fact that they have no school building sufficient to accommodate the people, the court house had been obtained simple preparations made for the entertainment. Friday morning by 9 o'clock the large court house was packed to its utmost capacity, thereby showing the strong hold the professor has upon the people. The exercises were opened by prayer and prayer by Rev. W. L. Stamper. The declarations and essays were all that could have been desired. To mention each one in turn and speak of their respective merits would take more time than I have and require more space than you can give up. Mrs. James Hall presided at the organ and performed her part well. S. C. Combs, who is one of our deserving great credit for the untiring interest they took in the closing exercises of the school. The address was delivered by Rev. W. L. Stamper, of Maytown, Ky. Prof. Byrd is a self-made man and deserves credit for his wonderful achievements. He is one of the young men of the mountains who will be seen and honored. Campton has honored herself by the establishment of a high school that promises untold good to the people to come and succeeding centuries.
DESTER.

We have in THE HERALD office a compositor who is perhaps the most remarkable typesetter known. We speak of Mr. H. C. Herndon, who is setting type since the 20th of March last. Some time last summer he had the curiosity to know if a hare was running in the woods—so smooth—and put his hand upon it to catch it, when, lo! 5 fingers and a thumb were left. He now holds the "stick" in his right hand, and picks up the type with his left, says he, "I have never felt a day. He also distributes, and instead of holding the type with the "nick" up, he holds it in the "finger" and distributes with his left, the type coming to him the same as to an ordinary compositor with the "nick" up. We have dubbed him our Chinese compositor, and put him against the field for the time he has worked. If any other office in the United States can produce his equal they will please communicate with us.

Their efforts were crowned with great success. Thirty-nine members were received into the church, eighteen of whom were baptized by effusion. ### GRASSY CREEK.

James Cecil is very ill.

Wm. Youcum, sr., who has been confined to his room for some time, is now able to be out again.

Quite a number of our citizens are at present engaged in peeling poplar logs, which they intend to run down the Licking river next winter.

Our constable, Jesse M. Oldfield, deserves much praise for the arrest of Buck Caywood, who was tried some three years ago, in the Wolfe circuit court, and sentenced to eleven years in the state prison for the murder of Esther Oldfield, on this creek, and immediately after the trial he, Caywood, escaped from the Mt. Sterling jail, and has since that time been at large, until last Monday, when Jesse Oldfield caught him in Lincoln county, West Virginia, and lodged him in the Mt. Sterling jail.

Your correspondents, "Garkey," from Cedar Bluff, Va., and "Longfellow," of Breathitt, Ky., seem to be very anxious to know where your Grassy creek correspondents, I will just say to them that I am "On The Wing." Longfellow wishes to know if I lost a sack of molasses. I can tell him about that; in the Indies say I have never lost any of my sweetest from the earliest period of my existence down to the present time. Longfellow will please inform us if his wheel-barrow seeds have come up yet, and not bother about our sack of molasses any further. On The Wing.

MAYTOWNS.

Born—To the wife of Oscar Young, a girl.

J. M. Murphy, of Grassy creek, and deputy clerk of Morgan county, was in town last week. He says he is a standing candidate for national honors. He further says he has written and made a declaration of love to every girl in the county, as yet, as he has received no answer.

Now he wants to know who will be the first to come forward and respond. Marshal Day and Jesse Oldfield have returned from West Virginia, having in custody Buck Caywood who, some years ago, was Oldfield's prisoner, whom that resulted in his death; for which Caywood was sentenced to the penitentiary for eleven years. He took an appeal from the lower court, and while his case was being disposed of by the court of appeals, he broke the Mt. Sterling jail and fled to West Virginia, where he has been ever since. In the meantime the court of appeals confirmed the decision of the lower court. Marshal Day, who is always on the lookout for violators of the law, heard of his whereabouts and forthwith arrested the young blood, and left him for a time with "Uncle Cash" Stephens at his residence, where he received a reward of one hundred and seventy-five dollars. The marshal deserves great credit for this arrest.
